The Queen's Award for Voluntary Service Presentation

Tuesday November 23rd 2021

At Last!

A sea of purple and gold – lovely welcoming colours. Great, we can finally get this official and celebrate.

Good times Sue (Open Minds)

Here we are, all together and celebrating our special award. This is so deserved as everyone has had a time of only zoom meetings that have been a life saver for all our members.

Many thanks and all our love Peter and Margaret xxx

Congratulations a wonderful celebration. A great honour for Julie and Jane.

Best wishes Kathryn

The expression on Julie's face when she saw Dr Lam was watching the demonstration. Getting to know other group members. Having to dress up smart for the first time since leaving my job 5 years ago. A big thank you to Julie, Jane and the committee. 'A Crackin' Day Gromit.'

Thank you, Sean and Dawn (newbies)

Absolutely honoured to be asked to be part of this amazing celebration that is totally deserved. Julie and Jane you have truly been amazing and helped me through tough times and I am eternally grateful for all the support of this group.

Thank you, Lisa and Keyleigh Ward xxx

Congratulations on a truly wonderful achievement. The room looked wonderful and I really enjoyed the whole morning. Thank you for everything you do.

Julie and Crew

Proud is maybe the best word to describe the day and everything you have made possible. I am not known for using a limited amount of words, but I'll finish by just saying inspirational!

Alan

Dear Julie,

May I endorse my Congratulations to you and your wonderful team at Fibro Active for gaining the Queen's Award for the Voluntary Service, such a well-deserved acknowledgement of your life enhancing achievements.

I so very much enjoyed the Presentation event, you worked so hard to put on such a tremendous day, I loved the video, the beautiful colour coding, the fabulous lunch, the Tai Chi demonstration, meeting volunteers and supporters, I know how much organisation and planning that these things take but it was so worthwhile.

Would you please pass on my very best wishes to Jane.

With kindest regards and well done again.
